Abbeville had been involved over the past week. Against Pendleton, AHS led 3 through five innings. Abbeville's Brooks Jackson had a solo home run in the first inning, and AHS scored three runs, including an RBI single. This was followed in the top half of the sixth by another Panther pitching change--Justin Campbell replaced Shockley--with Pendleton having runners on the corners with two outs. The Bulldog's sixth inning proved to be the pivotal segment in the game, with the Bulldogs' B.J. Thrasher pitching the whole game for Pendleton, and fending off Abbeville threats to provide for the final 5-4 score.
